Announcement Regarding Filed Lawsuit

KOITO MANUFACTURING CO., LTD. (“KOITO”) hereby announces that a lawsuit (the “Lawsuit”) was filed against KOITO at the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. The Lawsuit was filed on June 6, 2013. Since KOITO has recently been served with the complaint initiating the Lawsuit, KOITO announces the following. As of November 1, 2013, KOITO has information that, in addition to the Lawsuit, a lawsuit similar to the Lawsuit has been filed against KOITO by dealers, as plaintiffs, who purchased automotive lights in the United States.

1. Causes of the Lawsuit and Background Leading to Filing of the Lawsuit

The plaintiffs filed the Lawsuit against the defendants, including KOITO, on behalf of purchasers of automotive lights provided by the defendants, claiming, among other things, that the defendants had conspired and engaged in adjustment actions regarding automotive lights.

2. Outline of Persons that Filed the Lawsuit

Fifty one (51) individuals who are U.S. residents and Melinda Harr DDS PC, located in North Dakota, U.S.

3. Details of the Lawsuit

In the Lawsuit, the plaintiffs claim, among other things, damages and injunction of the alleged acts against KOITO. The complaint does not state the amount of the claim.

4. Future Prospects

KOITO will closely review the details of the complaint and deal with this matter in an appropriate manner.

There is a possibility that lawsuits similar to the Lawsuit will be filed against KOITO, or its subsidiaries or affiliated companies in the future.

At this point, it is difficult to predict what influence the Lawsuit, etc. will have on the future business results of KOITO. If matters that have to be disclosed occur in the future, KOITO will promptly disclose them.
